CONTRIBUTING TO NATIONAL INTER FAITH WEEK

ESSENTIAL DIVINITY

SATURDAY 14 NOVEMBER 2020
5:00-6:30PM

FREE ONLINE at globalcooperationhouse.org/webcast

At this crucial time in our world, it is essential to recognise and connect with that which is subtle and invisible and make it visible in our daily lives. We invite you to explore, with speakers from different faiths, the common threads that bind us such as love, peace and harmony. Is this an essential divinity that we all share?

On the panel:

- The Very Reverend Rogers Govender MBE, The Dean of Manchester
- Rev. Dr. Marcus Braybrooke, Joint President, World Congress of Faiths
- Imam Monawar Hussain MBE, Islamic Tutor, Eton College
- Sister Jayanti, European Director, Brahma Kumaris

Moderator: Maureen Goodman

Programme Director, Brahma Kumaris, UK

ESSENTIAL DIVINITY

The Very Reverend Rogers Govender, MBE has been the Dean of Manchester since 2006. Through his many community activities, he seeks to bring together a culturally diverse group to celebrate our unity and build cohesion in the City. He is a founding trustee of 'We Stand Together', a member of the Manchester Climate Change Board and First Patron of the Booth Centre for the Homeless.

Rev. Dr. Marcus Braybrooke is the Joint President of the World Congress of Faiths and has been involved in interfaith work for over fifty years. He was Executive Director of the Council of Christians and Jews from 1984-8, and is a Co-Founder of the Faith and Belief Forum (formerly the Three Faiths Forum).

Imam Monawar Hussain, MBE is the Islamic Tutor at Eton College and Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Birmingham. He is the founder of The Oxford Foundation, UK and Honorary Fellow, Edward Cadbury Centre. He is a Member of Consultative Council, Three Faiths Forum and of the Advisory Board, Dalai Lama Centre for Compassion. He is an Executive Committee Member of the World Congress of Faiths

Sister Jayanti, is the European Director of the Brahma Kumaris and a spiritual leader and teacher for 50 years. She is a pioneer advocate for the spiritual basis of caring for the earth and has headed the Brahma Kumaris delegation to COP, the annual UN Climate Change Conference, since 2009. She has championed the co-operative role of spiritual organisations in creating a just and peaceful world.

Maureen Goodman is the Programme Director of the Brahma Kumaris, UK and has been involved in interreligious dialogue since the 1980s. She represents the Brahma Kumaris on the Board of Religious Leaders of the Elijah Interfaith Institute. Maureen has played a major role in developing the University's outreach work in prisons, healthcare, education and youth in the UK.
